Issues Operating Performance in the Third Quarter of the Fiscal Year
Ending December 2016

TOKYO— Daiki Axis (TOKYO:4245) is pleased to announce the results for its 2016 third quarter.

Summary

Cumulative results in the third quarter of the fiscal year ending December 2016, were net sales of ¥23,765 million (down 1.6% YoY), operating income of ¥664 million (up 14.7% YoY), ordinary income of ¥812 million (up 19.1% YoY) and net income of ¥485 million (up 39.5% YoY).

Daiki Axis core businesses are the environmental equipment and housing equipment-related businesses. In the environmental equipment-related business, overseas sales grew substantially, with net sales rising 5.0% year on year, to ¥1,186, million and segment income (operating income) increasing 16.0% year on year, to ¥869 million.

In the housing equipment-related business, segment sales were lower compared to the previous fiscal year due to a drop in sales to construction-related operators after an unusually high amount of LED lighting sales in the previous year, resulting in net sales declining 8.4% year on year, to ¥11,394, million and segment income (operating income) decreasing 20.9% year on year, to ¥330 million.

In other businesses, The CleCla business grew slightly compared to the previous fiscal year, while the BDF business increased significantly due to sales of BDF plans. As a result, other business net sales increased 18.3% year on year, to ¥564 million, and segment income (operating income) was ¥30 million (compared to an operating loss of ¥69 million in the previous fiscal year).

The Company formulated the medium-term management plan V-PLAN60 for the three year period from fiscal 2016 to fiscal 2018. Based on the “hop-step-jump” concept, this fiscal year is regarded as the “hop” year in which the Company will launch initiatives aimed at further enhancing corporate value.
